

The European Network of Gynaecological Cancer Advocacy Groups (ENGAGe) is pleased to offer up to 50 travel grants to ENGAGE members to attend ESGO 2017 Patient Seminar, November 4-5, 2017, Vienna, Austria.

Description:

The educational grants will cover travel costs (up to 400 Eur), accommodation (2 overnights), get-together dinner and registration fees for the ESGO 2017 Patient seminar held in Vienna, Austria.

Reviewing criteria:

- At least 1 patient advocate from each country should be encouraged
- Maximum of 2 patient advocates can be allowed from each country
- Priority will be given to ENGAGe members who are:
 - actively participating in the survey
 - fluent in English
 - actively involved in gynaecological cancer field
- Selected patient advocates must be active ENGAGe members and need to submit an application, a motivation statement and an activity report, including some pictures, emphasising the developed activities/projects regarding gynaecological cancers.
- Selected attendees will be approved by ENGAGe Executive Group

Application and selection process:

Upon receipt of application form, a selection committee consisting of members of ENGAGE Executive Group will select participants based on the criteria above.

Participation in the Patient Seminar (Nov 4-5 2017) is linked with participation in the Patient Survey (if applicable).

Application form needs to be completed and sent to engage.secretariat@esgomail.org by 31.8.2017.

Application form can be downloaded from ENGAGE website <http://engage.esgo.org/>

Grant awardees will be announced on the ENGAGE website and contacted by email by 15.9.2017.
