

Project guidelines

1. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

- 1.1. These guidelines are issued by the European Society of Gynaecological Oncology, Registered Office: c/o Kenes International, rue François-Versonnex 7, P. O. BOX 6053, CH-1207 Genève, Switzerland, Co. Reg. No.: CHE-113.573.524 (“We” or “ESGO”).
- 1.2. ESGO organizes “ENGAGe TEENs project” (“Project”). The main aims of the Project are prevention of HPV, including cervical cancer and other HPV related cancers, influencing and acquisition of more teens to be vaccinated with the HPV vaccine.
- 1.3. These guidelines represent an agreement concluded between ESGO and the volunteer who is a member of the Project (“You” or “Member”), specifying rights and obligations of both parties and explaining internal procedures of the Project.
- 1.4. The Project is aimed at boys and girls from 13-19 years who volunteer to work to raise awareness of Human Papilloma Virus/HPV, cervical cancer and the HPV vaccine among younger generations. The reason why it should be teens reaching out to other teens is because they understand each other and know how to communicate with each other. Teens tend to connect with and listen to their peers more than they would do so with older people.

2. RULES OF THE PROJECT

- 2.1. By sending the application You voluntarily become a member of the Project and acknowledge that all Your activities within the Project shall be performed free of charge, as your volunteer activity. If You are not an adult, You must have a consent of your legal representative (Parent, Guardian etc.) in order to participate in the Project. If You do not have this consent, You may not participate in the Project.

- 2.2. We strongly emphasise that the subject matter of the Project is based on science and scientific arguments. As such, it is essential for Your proper participation that You are well oriented in this area. Therefore, before You start any activity within the Project, You have to participate in an on-line training organised by ESGO and to perform any activities within the Project in compliance with information provided through this training or through other means by ESGO.
- 2.3. Your main activity in the Project is to spread and share information among teenagers about Human Papilloma Virus (HPV), cervical cancer and the HPV vaccine. You can use materials (e.g. booklets, posters, videos, articles, brochures, posts on social media, etc.) prepared by ESGO. If You are going to use your own materials, You should have them approved by ESGO before using them. You may not share any content that violates anyone's intellectual property or other rights. You may not spam. You may not provide any false information about topics related to the Project. You may not make any commercial and advertising messages and statements in connection with the Project. Any breach of this provision may result in Your exclusion from the Project and immediate termination of our agreement.
- 2.4. By participating in the Project, you may use our materials, trademark, etc., however You are fully responsible for your activities. We are not responsible for any of your activity in the Project. By participating in this Project, you are expected to copy and translate global campaigns/materials/posts/videos etc. and distribute them via local channels. You may prepare your own activities on a local level only if such an activity is supervised by a local ENGAGe Member association or a local ESGO doctor. In such a case the local ENGAGe Member association or the local ESGO doctor bear responsibility for your activity. ENGAGe TEENS logo may only be used with the global campaigns/materials/posts/videos etc.
- 2.5. If You see any activity that violates these guidelines, You can report it to us by e-mail: engage@esgo.org.
- 2.6. If in our opinion Your activities may violate the laws, rights or legitimate interests of third parties or the good name of ESGO, the Project or our cooperating organizations, You are obliged to terminate such activities upon our instruction (remove any of your output, etc.)
- 2.7. You hereby acknowledge and agree that all your portraits or recordings, pictures and speeches (videos, texts, posts etc.), to be used in the Project, may be used in a global campaign for example on social networks, television, radio, the Internet, etc. You hereby acknowledge and agree that any data used in the Project or in the campaign may be published worldwide and it may not be possible to remove them.

- 2.8. You hereby provide ESGO with the right to use any of your pictures and speeches (videos, texts, posts etc.) (“Author's Works”), which you use in the Project (“Licence”). The Licence is free of charge, unlimited in time, non-exclusive, transferable, without quantity limitation, for any worldwide use. You agree not to use the works of third parties in your Author's Works (excluding materials provided by ESGO). You agree that ESGO is authorised to change, amend, or translate the Author's Works include them in a collective work (collection), either alone or via third parties or deal with them in any other way. We are entitled to sublicense or assign the Licence or any part of the Licence to a third party.
- 2.9. ESGO owns / manages all accounts related to the Project on social networks. You are not authorized to create your own social networking accounts using the brand of the Project or otherwise indicating their interconnection with the Project, without our written consent (may be provided in the form of e-mail).
- 2.10. All activities performed by each party in the Project are voluntary. The parties have no rights for any remuneration for their performance according to this agreement.
